Milk, fruit juice and sweetened drinks between meals can cause tooth decay and decrease children’s appetite for healthy foods. Offer water between meals instead!

DID YOU KNOW?

Offer water between meals to quench thirst

Avoid milk or juice between meals

Constant sipping of milk and juice can lead to cavities

For more information, please visit www.aboutkidshealth.ca/DentalCare